TUCSON, ARIZONA, Jan. 17. — This city, by its citizens accurately described as "The Gem" is two hours' ride south of Phoenix, by the Southern Pacific. Traveling through Salt River valley on the way you see fields of lettuce as big as Kansas cornfields. Mexicans work in them. Japanese, marvelous agriculturists, direct them, United States citizens own them.

A friend who has talked to the writer about Tucson for years has not told half the story. Built on the desert, the city is surrounded on all sides by tall and beautiful mountains. It has practically been created in 10 years, has the biggest bank in Arizona, and is spreading out toward the mountains and climbing up their sides rapidly.

But some of that high land now and later you will feel like the real estate man of Long Beach, California, who said to this writer, "I felt guilty when I sold sand lots to easterners for $100 each. Now I couldn't buy back some of them for $100,000 each."

If your health is unsatisfactory, live in Tucson and it will be better than ever.

If you are well and want to live 100 years more spend your winters in Tucson.

Mr. Van De Vries, president of the Chamber of Commerce and a real estate man, dislikes to sell any real estate knowing that he ought to keep it all.

As you look through Congress street, Tucson's main thoroughfare, you see at the far end a beautiful purple mountain, under a brilliant blue sky. That's better than seeing one of the large gas tanks that occasionally block your view in New York.

Everything in Tucson is interesting. From the new real estate developments, of brilliantly colored houses on one side, the Old Indian village on the other.

The big placid brown coats that lie in the sunshine against the Indian adobe walls are pleasing. You wish that civilized real estate did not drive them out. And the young Indian mother, barely 18, her four little children born close together, busy in her bright red dress, pleases more than the "low sun-backed ladies at more fashionable resorts."

There is a separate village for Yaqui Indians. No one disturbs them for the saying "a Yaqui can lick 10 ordinary men," is not fiction.

When somebody is killed in that village, unwritten law allows the Indians to attend to it. They know what is best.

They coaxed him. He bared his teeth. They "shook" him; he growled. They made gestures at him and he barked. But he wouldn't move.

Then Mrs. Francis Berenson came along looking for Jane, aged one and a half years, and the dog wagged his tail and barked gleefully. His vigil was done, and there, underneath the shovel they found Jane, sound asleep, her head on a rock.

Police had received information that a Cleveland Heights filling station was to be held up last night and two detectives were lying in wait with a riot gun. Near death at a hospital, Corris named Erick as his companion. As a squad reached Erick's home, three shots were heard and the youth was found dead in the attic.

In the appeal case of F. E. Shields against G. G. Buza, the defendant has been granted leave to file an answer at once.

A reappraisal has been ordered by the court in the case of the Union Commercial & Savings bank of East Palestine against Letha Jones and others. A sale has been set aside in this case, and a new appraisal ordered.

A sale has been confirmed, a deed ordered and a decree of distribution entered in the partition action filed by James H. Sharp against Raymond W. Sharp. Attorneys for

J. E. Baucknecht have been approved by the court.
Maurice Neuman, defendant in an action filed against him by B. F. Whitacre, has been granted leave to file his answer to the petition at once. In this case the defendant has been sued for $425 as damages resulting from an accident.
The case of Emma Halliday against the Mechanics & Traders Ins. Co., has been settled and dismissed. The court has entered a judgment against both plaintiff and defendant for their equal share of the costs.

Real Estate Transfers.
G. C. Baxley, as trustee to Charles P. Floyd, 8 lots Overlook Heights addition, Knox township; $1.

Harold R. Driggs to Earl T. Ewing and wife lot 46, Main street, Wellsville; $10,000.

Lemoyne C. Swager to Jennie Swager, one-quarter acre East Liverpool; $500.

Par G. Peterson and wife to Mary E. Peterson Smith lot Sheridan avenue East Liverpool; $5.

Wife Given Divorce
The divorce case filed by Edith R. Kell against Walter E. Kell was uncontested when called for trial before Judge W. F. Lones, and a decree was granted the plaintiff on the ground of gross neglect of duty, but upon the payment of the costs. Mrs. Kell was restored to her maiden name, that of Edith R. Martin.

Loan Seeks Judgment
A decree foreclosing the mortgage on the property of George Nick at Lisbon has been entered in common pleas court in the action filed by the People's Savings & Loan Co., which has obtained a judgment for $2,216 and costs. Other judgments entered are in favor of Joseph Krash for $504; Callahan Mining Co. for $94.50 and Rocco Romeo for $26.86.

Nick shot and killed Christie Bazzara at Lisbon the afternoon of Dec. 11, 1929, and was later committed to the Lima state hospital for the criminal insane. Several months ago he escaped from that institution, and has not been heard of since. His wife and children are occupying the property at South Beaver and Washington streets which was set up in the mortgage.

Another phase of this tragedy came to light Friday afternoon when an offer was made to Prosecuting Attorney John E. Baucknecht to purchase the clothing of Bazzara, a bid of $10 being made for the clothing. Should this clothing be sold, the money will be turned into the county fund.

Case Is Dismissed
When cases are assigned for trial before Judge W. F. Lones and plaintiffs do not appear, but defendants are ready for trial, petitions will be dismissed.

Dr. J. B. Wilkinson sued Nellie Fuhr in a lower court a year ago for $40. The case was appealed. Attorneys for plaintiff and defendant were in court Friday, but Wilkinson did not appear, and his counsel could not give the court good cause for the absence of Wilkinson. The case was then dismissed at the costs of Wilkinson.

This was the fourth case dismissed at plaintiffs' costs during the week because they did not appear when their cases had been assigned for trial.

Sued By Guardian
Reason Barnes of Kensington has been made defendant in a suit filed against him by H. W. Summers, as guardian of the person and estate of Mary E. McClure, of West township, an incompetent.

Summers was appointed guardian Nov. 10 last. From 1918 Barnes became continuing agent for the ward. Summers relates that monies and property have come into the possession of Barnes, and that he has failed to give an accounting when Summers made the request. The petition shows Barnes handled $13,474 for the account of Mary McClure.

Fits Partition Action
Partition proceedings have been filed in court by Mary J. Willard against William J. Binsley and 17 other heirs, with C. C. Connell as counsel for the plaintiff. The partition of lot 394 in Cowan & Blockson's addition in Lisbon is sought by this action.

In a petition filed by Mr. Connell on behalf of Ada C. Stuller against August Clair and others of Homeworth, partition of lot 69 asked.

Funeral Honors Would

Have Astonished Auntee

A dear old New England spinster, the embodiment of the timid and shrinking, passed away at a famous health resort, where she had gone in the last stage of a lingering illness. Her nearest kinsman, a nephew, ordered her body sent back to her home town to be buried—as it was her last wish—in the quiet little country churchyard. His surprise can be imagined when, on opening the casket, he beheld, instead of the placid features of his Aunt Hepzibah the majestic form of an army general in full regiments, whom he remembered had chanced to die at the same place and time as his aunt. At once he sent a telegram to the general's heirs, explaining the situation, and requesting instructions. They came back as follows: "Give the general quiet funeral. Aunt Hepzibah interred today with full military honors, six brass bands, speech by congressman and governor and saluting guns."—Pathfinder Magazine.

between business men of the city and rural organizations are bringing together record throngs of farmers.

Defiance in northwestern Ohio for several years has had a big lead on all competitors. There, also, the city-rural plan is in operation. At five sessions last winter, the Defiance meetings averaged 1,113 persons.

Medina's three-day session institute ranked second last year with an average attendance of 750. Germantown was third with 587 at five sessions, trailed by Smithville, Wayne county, with 852 (five sessions) and Bucyrus, the same number.

Today's Pattern

A perfect fitting foundation garment is essential under the new frocks, in order to avoid unnecessary bulkiness and wrinkles. The model presented today is slightly muddled to the figure, and adds its skirt fullness well below the snug neckline. The back is perforated for a backless garment to be worn under evening gowns.

Pattern 2081 may be made of crepe de chine, wash satin, rayon or a fine cotton fabric. Favorite colors are tea rose, flesh, pink, egg shell and orchid. Beige lace is attractive with any of these shades.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards or 39-inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Groups Pool Resources

For the first two years, the institute was held under grange and business bureau direction, each subordinate grange and the bureau being directly responsible for one session.

This year a new policy is being tried out which pools all the resources of the six groups and distributes talent over the entire program.

Two playlets, "The Window to the South," and "Joint Owners in Spain," as well as many additional features, including varied displays, concerts and other entertainment are on the program.

Price Cope of Salem grange is president of the institute. Russell Myers of Willow Grove is vice president and Mrs. Elizabeth Pow of Goshen secretary-treasurer.

Dahlia Cultivation

Dahlia history commences in 1791, when Cavanilles, the dictator of the Botanical garden of Madrid, Spain, described the flowering of a set of dahlia roots received in 1789 from Vincente Cervantes of Mexico. Dahlias first reached England in 1789 through the agency of the Marchioness of Bute. This had little effect on the history of the plant, however, as all these plants perished from a lack of proper understanding of their needs. They were re-introduced successfully in 1801 through the interest of Lady Holland.

Oyster Cultivation

Oysters are now planted and cultivated like so much corn or turpentine. Herbert F. Prytherch of the United States bureau of fisheries tells us that the oyster industry of the United States now constitutes its most valuable fishery, yielding annually about 73,000 tons of food, employing over 65,000 persons, and producing each year a crop valued at over $140,000,000 as it is taken from the water. It is conducted, he says, in every seacoast state from Puget sound to San Francisco.

Ascribed to Franklin

"Co Ira" was a popular song of the French revolution. The words are of uncertain origin, one version probably being the composition of Ladue, a street singer. The air was a popular carillon by Beccourt, and a favorite of Marie Antoinette's. French writers say that Benjamin Franklin in speaking of the American revolution often used the expression "Co Ira," which means "It Will Succeed." The phrase was caught up by the French.

Telling It With a Medal

The Nicaraguan Government took this means of telling while Mrs. Frith looks admiringly on. The decoration was presented "in recognition of the exceptional services rendered the Republic."

HOLY TRINITY ENGLISH LUTHERAN

Rev. George D. Keister, pastor. (All services are held in the Memorial building on East State St.)

Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

Sunday school, 9:45 (Luke 3:1-20) H. E. Smith, supt.

The natural trend in life is downward. It takes effort to keep on the upward trail. It takes the working of the grace of God in the human heart to put down evil and hold up righteousness. God sent John, the Baptizer to serve as a force against the wickedness of his day. It was a stirring message that this prophet of the wilderness preached. It stirred the thinking and changed the living wherever he went. He was opening the way for the ministry of Jesus, the Savior of men.

Morning worship 11 a. m. Sermon: "A Narrow Way."

Personal liberty is preached and demanded today. The far-flung boundaries of the world and even the universe seem not to limit the thinking and dreaming of man. There is a repulsion to being cramped and confined. Such may be the results of the independent thought of the human mind. When we approach the matters of religion, we have not so much to say about it. When we come to the plan of salvation, we have not a word to suggest how it is to be done. God has clearly outlined how the world is to be saved. It is a narrow way, but a glorious one.

COUNTY SCORING RECORDS
SALEM STARS AHEAD

William Smith and Ed Beck, Salem High forwards, are far in the lead in scoring in Columbiana county, each amassing a total of 62 points in eight games played by the Quaker varsity up until last night's contest with Youngstown East. Each of five Salem regulars, Smith, Beck, Thomas, French, Paul Sartick and Norman Early are among the first ten in county scoring.

Beck has tallied the most field goals with 27 and has also caged eight fouls. Smith has 22 field baskets with 18 fouls, being far ahead of other cagers in caging of charity shots just as Beck leads the field in scoring from action. Nanci Checkler, star Wellsville forward, has attained the best average, getting 14 field goals and 11 fouls for 39 points in three games, an average of 13 points a contest.

Checkler is third in scoring with his team-mate Shanks, fourth. ## BUCKEYE CAGERS MEET MICHIGAN

Eight Big Ten Basketball Teams Involved in Games Tonight; Wolverines At Columbus

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Eight Big Ten basketball teams will take a whirl at unraveling the 1930 championship race tonight, with certainty of reducing the list of unbalanced outfits to two.

The big reducing job will be done at Chicago where the Maroons and Minnesota will meet. Each has won its single conference start, Chicago having defeated Indiana, 28 to 27, and the Gophers having overcome Iowa, 26 to 22. The teams appear evenly matched, any edge belonging to Chicago because of its home floor advantage.

Michigan, with two victories and one defeat, will invade Ohio State which has broken even in two games.

Illinois, loser in its three conference contests, appears to be in for another defeat when Indiana invades Champaign.

Iowa will meet Wisconsin of the Badgers' floor.

Northwestern, leader of the race with two straight triumphs and Purdue, which has been a disappointment so far will be idle.

Visitors Swamped By Fast Offensive Drive; Meet Philly Tonight

Flashing unexpected power on both offense and defense, Salem High overwhelmed Youngstown East, 36-21, here Friday night, to register its fourth consecutive victory of the 1930-31 campaign and bring its record to date to six wins against three defeats sustained early in the season.

Starting slowly, the Quakers displayed a fast-working offense with William Smith and Ed Beck caging baskets from all sections of the court to lead their team to an easy victory. From a basket-scoring standpoint at least, it was probably Salem's best showing of the season.

The Quakers will seek their fifth consecutive victory when they flash with New Philadelphia High at New Philadelphia tonight. The reserve squad will also meet the

Grove Electrics To Play Canton

The Grove Electric company cagers of Salem face their toughest basketball game of the season at Canton Thursday night when they clash with the Stark county Class A champion Firestones-Fort Wayne battle at the public auditorium there.

The Plans, defeated in only one game this season, won the Stark county Class A title last year and also won the Class A city championship in competition with Canton's strongest sandlot teams.

The Salem game will be played at 7:30 following which the Canton Sherer Grills clash with the Canal Fulton Merchants in a second preliminary.

Fort Wayne, a member of the American Professional basketball league meets Canton's pro team in the main game at 9 p. m.

RESERVE SQUAD WINS SEVENTH

Youngstown East Quintet Nosed Out In Close Battle Friday

Salem High reserves won their seventh consecutive victory of the season Friday night, defeating Youngstown East, High's junior varsity, 22-18, in a close contest.

The Salem quintet held the upper hand in most of the contest but was given a stiff battle by the invading aggregation. The score at the half was 9-4, following which the Quakers stepped ahead and held at least a four-point lead the remainder of the fracas.

The reserve squad has registered eight victories against no defeats so far this season and tonight clashes with New Philadelphia second-stringers at New Philly.

HEENEY VICTIM OF ODD VERDICT IN BAER BATTLE

Jack Dempsey Again In Unique Role As Third Man In Contest

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Jack Dempsey, in his modern role of referee, manages to get himself into more weird jams than he ever did as a fighter.

The old "manassa mauler" was third man in the ring of Madison Square Garden last night when Tom Heene was knocked from the ring in the third round of his ten round match with Max Baer and then was counted out when he least expected it and least needed it.

Heeney Holds Edge

Old Tom had cuffed the cocky California youngster around the ring in the first two rounds, charging in with both fists flying and generally making it embarrassing for Baer. The third round had barely got under way when the two batters got themselves all tied up in a wrestling match.

A few punches sent Heeney off balance and he sailed through the ropes, into the press box. Apparently unhurt, Tom clambered back.

EAST LIVERPOOL TRIMS BELLAIRE

BELLAIRE, Jan. 17.—East Liverpool Potters won their first game of the current season on an out-of-town court Friday when they smashed a small Bellaire quint, 29 to 17.

The home team was wrecked by ineptitude and furnished no opposition to the Dixon combine. The Cranmies took things easy in the final two stanzas, the Reserves playing a large part of the game.

Quaker Lassies Stage Great Finish To Nose Out Alumni

Ruth Jones Paces School Maidens In Victory Over Ex-Highs

Paced by Ruth Jones who amassed more than half of her team's points, Salem High girls nosed out a team of alumni cage stars, 35-31, in a sensational battle at the high school gym here Friday night.

Apparently outplayed for the greater part of the contest, Coach Esther Peterson's lassies staged a great rally in the third and fourth periods to decisively defeat the ex-high veterans who were doped to win handily. It was easily the season's most exciting girls' game.

Anna Zelle Stars
The Quaker maidens, led by Ruth Jones, held a 5-3 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the ex-highs flashed a strong offensive drive to step ahead by an 18-12 margin at the half. Anna Zelle, who last year scored more than 100 points as a Red and Black forward, was the outstanding offensive player of the game.

The Quakers started their drive towards victory late in the third quarter, when facing a 24-17 handicap, they advanced within three points of a tie game, the period ending with the alumni ahead by only three points. The score was 26-23. The spectacular offensive work was continued in the fourth quarter when the high lassies gradually stepped ahead.

Rough Battle
The game was fairly rough. Dorothy Kaecher and Ann Jones starred in defensive work for the victors while Zelle, who registered 23 points for high score honors, Hazel Beck, Roessler, Betty Moss and Melba Barnes starred for the ex-highs.

The contest brought out unexpected strength in the Peterson-coached squad and indicated possibilities of development of a strong team.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Bran is occasionally a desirable part of the diet although it should never be added except on medical advice. It does not agree with every one, nor indeed is it desirable to take it regularly. However, if it is specified, it can be included with other foods to make it palatable.

Bran is recommended to us as "roughage." It is the outside coat of wheat and other cereals—in other words, the leftover after the flour has been extracted. There's no starch in bran and no nourishment. Its value to the system lies in its "broom" qualities, and it is occasionally helpful to some constitutions, toothers it may prove irritating.

One of the palatable ways of serving bran is in pleasantly flavored bread. Brown, instead of white, sugar, plus raisins or nuts or dates
combine well.

Quick Nut Bread

2 cups flour
2 cups bran
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 cups sour milk
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup chopped dates

Sift together the dry ingredients.
Add the chopped dates and nuts, so that they are well covered, and do not stick together. Beat eggs, sour milk and sugar until creamy, then add to the dry mixture. Pour into a buttered tin and set aside for 15 minutes. Then place in a moderate oven and bake for about three-quarters of an hour.

Raisins or chopped figs may be mixed with the nuts if preferred, but the date and walnut combination seem to blend particularly well.

This bread sliced very thin and spread with cream cheese will make delicious sandwiches.

SEEKING FUNDS
FOR PROPOSED
TRIP TO MOON

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—A trip to the moon and back again in a rocket hurtling through space at 12,000 feet a second will be entirely possible in 15 or 20 years, in the opinion of Professor Robert Esnault-Pelterie, French scientist who is here to gain financial backing for his experiments and to address the American Interplanetary society.
"I think I am qualified to make the voyage myself," the professor said, "but first the rocket will be sent without a human navigator."
He explained that the pilotless rocket would circumnavigate the moon and return again, carrying instruments to record height, degrees of heat and pressure, and take motion pictures of the frigid or unknown side of the moon. It would take about 49 hours to reach the moon, he said, and as long to return.
The venture would cost several millions of dollars, he said.

War Predicted
By Ludendorff

(By International News Service)
BERLIN, Jan. 17.—Civil war in Germany, leading to a world war and the destruction of Europe, are predicted by General Ludendorff in a signed article in his newspaper, Volkswarte this week.
The German war general claims he has positive information that "authoritative circles are negotiating with the Nationalist leagues to establish a dictatorship headed by President Von Hindenburg, Minister of Defense Greener and Chancellor Brüning, with Mussolini in the background."
According to Ludendorff's claims the dictatorship would be based on the Reichswehr, Steel Helmets and similar Fascist groups.
"This means civil war," writes the general, "which will bring about what, without my work, the World war would have accomplished, namely, the destruction of Germany. Naturally this civil war will lead to a world war and the destruction of Europe."
Banner headlines over the article proclaim "civil war imminent."
A government spokesman, questioned about the article and the convictions it expresses, said:
"General Ludendorff's statement is not taken seriously. It will be ignored."

Even the tiniest girls wear pajamas these days, and justly so, since their warmth and service far blouse; the blouse may, of course, be worn inside the trousers. Sleeves may be made long or short, or may be omitted entirely.

MOVIES

In Talkie Role

Claudette Colbert is starred in "Manslaughter," at the State next week.

Comedy, intense drama and domestic life—that's the bill for the week of theatrical entertainment scheduled at the State, Grand and Royal theaters starting next Monday.

The State features "Just Imagine," a highly imaginative production picturing the United States in 1930, on its screen on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The film presumes to show how earthly humans exist as seen from the planet Mars. El Brendel, Swedish comedian of note, Marjorie White, Maureen O'Sullivan, John Garrick and a large cast play in the drama.

Duty Before Love
A really human story with intensity of drama is that of "Manslaughter" which shows Claudette Colbert and Frederic March in leading roles. It shows melodrama that exists when duty comes before love in the life of a rising young prosecuting attorney, picturing March as the prosecutor who sends Miss Colbert, the girl he loves, to prison on a manslaughter charge.

Old-time movie fans will easily recall the picture in its silent adaptation. Thomas Meighan in the starring role. It is taken from the famous novel written by Alice Duer Miller, the talkie version being an almost exact adaptation from the fiction story.

Beery-Dressler In Comedy
Wallace Beery and Marie Dressler furnish the comedy of the week in "Min and Bill," a story which co-starred Dorothy Jordan, Marjorie Rambau and Donald Dillaway. It is taken in the background of a waterfront hotel with the proverbial polyglot population of Japanese, Danish, Chinese and Mexican fisherman, the scenery being appropriate to ensuring drama and comedy furnished by the plot.

Edmund Lowe and Lella Hyams appear together in "Part Time Wife" which shows at the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
Temmy Clifford, clever juvenile actor and Walter McGrath have leading supporting roles. The picture shows the troubles in a family where the husband goes "golfcrazy."

"Just Imagine" and "Min and Bill" furnish moviegoers excellent entertainment at the State with
"Manslaughter" and "Part Time Wife," playing at the Grand. The Royal has a two-gun thriller, "Men Without Law," Buck Jones playing the lead.
"Remote Control," William Haines' hilarious venture into radio broadcasting, and "Oh! For a Man" furnishes entertainment at the State and Grand respectively.
Tonight, "Lucky Larkin," portraying
Ken Maynard in a western heroic vehicle, is at the Royal.
